STAR

Always the symbol of

the rising star as stella maris was in Christian countries the guide of navigators from the icy polar regions to the warm south seas.

The psychological attitude asked of us is to be a child of the stars, to partake of their great dreams

and gifts surpassing our little selves, becoming the dreams of the hero

the fearless pioneer, the voyager over new seas, the discoverer of new continents. Since it might be that after his life on earth the hero will himself become the starchild or the great lover of a star, we also can learn even now to become a companion to these beautiful beings.

A Will, a hope immense now seized his heart...^[1]
