The Eternity Game

“The Eternity Game by Medhananda (also called: The Golden Ball Game) contains 64 cards and a booklet with guidance for the various play-possibilities and the detailed interpretations of each card and its four aspects. We ask a question – and by concentrating on our question choose a card (or several) – and get an answer.

The intention of the game is to make us more aware of our many soul forces – to help us to evoke or exercise, invoke or integrate them by growing more conscious, more transparent of ourselves and the reality around us – and to become master of our inner kingdom.”<sup>[1]</sup>

“The quarterly =1 ... was crowned by the creation of a psychological game which Medhananda and Yvonne played with the Mother the last time she received them in February 1973.”<sup>[2]</sup>
